

• VILLAGE HIGHLIGHT: NEWTON CORNER •

Favorite thing about your village

Hard to pick one! I love taking walks and looking at the old houses and trees. I also love the proximity to Boston and that it is close to other towns. I love my children's school, Underwood. It is a great community.

Your favorite place to get coffee or a snack:

Hmmm, I really wish we had an independently run bakery or coffee shop in Newton Corner. This addition would be GREAT. If I travel for baked goods and coffee, I go to Koko in Nonantum.

Fun playground or park

Farlow Park with new pond and bridge, with the Underwood Playground next to it. I love the old trees in Farlow. Spent many afternoons building fairy houses with my kids in the crooks of the trees.

Elisa Rodriguez

Danielle Schreier

This insider's guide to Newton Corner comes from Elisa Rodriguez. She is the Coordinator for Families Organizing for Racial Justice (FORJ) in the Newton Public Schools system. Her family came to Newton Corner in 1982. Elisa then moved to Minnesota for about 10 years. She came back to Newton since 2004.

INSIDER VILLAGE TIP: The rotary can be intimidating to drivers, it gets easier to navigate with time!

Favorite Restaurant

Before COVID, I had a great meal at Social. They have my favorite fries, hands down. Consistently crunchy with rosemary and parmesan. The staff there is super nice.

Newton Neighbors, Inc

illage Highlight: Newton Corner

This guide was published in August 2020.

This insider's guide to Newton Corner comes from Elisa Rodriguez. She is the Coordinator for Families Organizing for Racial Justice (FORJ) in the Newton Public Schools system. Her family came to Newton Corner in 1982. Elisa then moved to Minnesota for about 10 years. She came back to Newton since 2004.

Favorite thing about your village: Hard to pick one! I love taking walks and looking at the old houses and trees. I also love the proximity to Boston and that it is close to other towns. I love my children's school, Underwood. It is a great community.

Your favorite place to get coffee or a snack: Hmmm, I really wish we had an independently run bakery or coffee shop in Newton Corner. This addition would be GREAT. If I travel for baked goods and coffee, I go to Koko in Nonantum.

Your favorite restaurant: Before COVID, I had a great meal at Social. They have my favorite fries, hands down. Consistently crunchy with rosemary and parmesan. The staff there is super nice.

A fun playground or park: Farlow Park with new pond and bridge, with the Underwood Playground next to it. I love the old trees in Farlow. Spent many afternoons building fairy houses with my kids in the crooks of the trees.

Annual village events to watch for: Hmmm, good question. Not sure. Do we have one?

Insider village tips: The rotary can be intimidating to drivers, it gets easier to navigate with time!

Elisa Rodriguez

Farlow Park

Click above for a one page summary of this month's guide

El pueblo destacado de este mes: Newton Corner

Publicado en agosto de 2020.

Nuestra guía de Newton Corner es Elisa Rodriguez. Es coordinadora de Families Organizing for Racial Justice (FORJ) en el sistema de Newton Public Schools. Su familia se mudó a Newton Corner en 1982. Por unos 10 años, Elisa vivió en Minnesota. En 2004, Elisa regresó a Newton Corner.

Lo que le gusta más de su pueblo: Es difícil escoger solo uno. Me encanta pasear y mirar las viejas casas y árboles. También, me encanta la proximidad del pueblo a Boston y que está ubicado cerca de otros pueblos. Además, amo la escuela que mis hijos asisten, Underwood. Es una comunidad fantástica.

Su cafetería favorita: Pues... realmente desearía que tuviéramos una panadería o cafetería independiente en Newton Corner. Esta adición sería GENIAL. Si viajo por pastelitos y café, voy a Koko en Nonantum.

Su restaurante favorito: Antes de COVID, comé comida deliciosa en Social. Tienen mis papas fritas favoritas. Son crujientes y están sazonadas con romero y parmesano. La personal allí es super agradable.

Un divertido parque infantil o parque: Farlow Park con un estanque y un puente. Está al lado de Underwood Playground. Me encantan los viejos árboles en Farlow. Pasaba muchas tardes construyendo casas para hadas en las ramas de los árboles con mis hijos.

Algún consejo: La rotonda puede ser intimidatoria, pero se hace más fácil navegar con tiempo.